

We are looking for people who have made an outstanding contribution to the driver training industry and we need your help to find them. The award is open to anyone connected with the driver training industry who makes a difference by their actions. Nominations are open to all! This is not a road safety award but a personal award of achievement. The award will be presented at the ADI Federation AGM - 18th April 2010.

All nominations to be received by 20.02.10
